

Academic honesty is essential to the continued functioning of Rwenzori International University (RIU) as an institution of higher learning and research. All RIU students are expected to behave as honest and responsible members of an academic community. They are charged with a great responsibility to maintain the highest level of academic honesty and integrity as they prepare to enter a profession with those principles as a cornerstone.

By signing this pledge, I promise to adhere to examination requirements and maintain the highest level of ethical principles not only during the examination period and entire period of my study at RIU. I will abide by the rules my instructors have provided for the final examinations and other tests, assignments and all forms of continuous assessment tests, and will not violate the RIU Academic Standards and Examinations Policy that includes but is not limited to;

1. Barring of cheating on exams or projects, plagiarizing or any other form of academic dishonesty
2. Complying with all the rules and regulations relevant to RIU examination policy
3. Following the lawfully recognized instructions of the invigilator during the writing of all exams
4. Not being influenced, in any way, to cheat in the examinations by any person including the invigilator
5. Not participating in any wrongdoing which includes, but is not limited to, copying, being in possession of unauthorized material or electronic devices (cellphones, tablets), accepting or providing assistance to another candidate, writing on behalf of another candidate or any other unauthorized action.
6. Reporting any form of wrongdoing that I am aware of to the chief invigilator.
7. Not copying (from another person or any other source)
8. Barring other candidates to copy from me
9. Not engaging ghost writers or any other person writing on my behalf.
10. Refusing an answer from an invigilator or any other official
11. Shunning drunkenness or disorderly activity while on the university campus
12. Not obtaining or distributing the question paper or material before the stipulated writing date and time.
13. Avoiding to give or receive any unauthorized help on any of my examinations, and that all work will be my own.
14. Not giving or receiving any unauthorized help on assignments nor examinations and that all work presented is my own.

As a student of Rwenzori International University (RIU), I hereby accept to observe the statutes, rules and regulations, and ordinances (including bylaws, codes and policies) of the University and to any amendments thereto which may be made while I am a student of this University.

Name _____ Reg. No: _____

Faculty _____ Contacts _____

Signature _____ Date _____